Vol. I. MILWAUKEE, JANUARY 1st, 1886. No. I.

EDITORIAL.

At the urgent request of a large number of the Clergy, we undertook the publication of a Catholic Directory, they being dissatisfied with the one published in New York, on account of its inaccuracy, incompleteness, etc., as also with the exorbitant price charged for it.

The Directory published prior to 1860 sold at 25 cents per copy. At the close of the war the book was taken up by a New York concern, which published and sold it at $1.00 until 1883, when they raised the price to $1.50.

Not being able to withstand the storm of indignation that arose from the reverend clergy and the Catholic press from all parts of the United States, they were forced to reduce the price to $1.25, at which exorbitant rate it has been sold up to the present year, notwithstanding the protests of the reverend clergy and the Catholic Public. Facts and figures showed that a very material reduction in price could be made, and encouraged by the liberal support extended to us on every hand, we undertook the laborious task of publishing a Catholic Directory, complete and reliable in every respect, IN THE INTEREST OF THE REVEREND CLERGY, regardless of the labor and heavy expense incident to its publication, and have placed the price of our book at the moderate sum of 50 Cents per copy, including the Clergy List Quarterly for the current year. That is to say, the subscribers to our Directory get the complete Directory and Clergy List for the United States at the subscription price of 50 cents per copy and the quarterly corrections free of charge.

CLERGY LIST QUARTERLY.

What is the "Clergy List Quarterly"? is a question that no doubt many of our friends and patrons will ask on receipt of our book. We explain: It having been found impossible to give a correct and reliable Directory in an annual publication and have it of any real value after the lapse of a few months, the publishers after mature consideration, have decided to issue quarterly a corrected list, so that at the end of the year the book will be as correct as it was at the end of the first three months from date of issue.

After consultation with many prominent clergymen, we have decided to publish the Directory for the United States only, leaving out the reports of the British Provinces, the United Kingdom, etc., it being entirely impossible to get accurate reports from these points; deeming it of far more importance to the Reverend Clergy and the Catholic Public that they have a Directory of the United States only, and this thorough and reliable in every respect than a conglomerated mass of stereotyped matter of no value to anyone.

STATISTICS.

It is much to be regretted that statistics are not more carefully kept; in every Diocese there are Parishes that fail to report, so that any general summary that can be made up, at best is only an approximation. Statistics and reports have been guessed at for many years, but the publishers of this Directory are desirous of making it as accurate as possible, and therefore request the Reverend Clergy to notify them direct of any change or correction to be made in their Parish report, as it now appears.

ADVERTISERS.

We call the attention of our subscribers to the numerous advertisments of our patrons in this Directory. Their generous aid in advertising has gone far toward defraying the enormous expense of publishing the work. When in want of goods in their line, you cannot dobetter than call on, or correspond with them, they are representative houses in their respective lines and as such we cordially recommend them. When writing, please mention Hoffmann's Catholic Directory.

CLERICAL CHANGES.

In order to make this list absolutely correct, it is necessary for the Clergy to report changes in their own individual address.

CONCLUSION.

We tender our sincere thanks to the Most Rev. Archbishops, the Rt. Rev. Bishops, and the Rev. Chancellors and Secretaries of the various Dioceses for their courtesy and care in revising the lists and in furnishing information asked. We do not claim absolute perfection for this first issue. We have published the reports as they have been furnished and guarantee them to be official, with very few exceptions, and in these few exceptional cases we have compiled reports from the best sources available. We shall endeavor to perfect this publication continually and request our patrons to inform us of all necessary changes and corrections, and thus assist us in making the "Directory and Clergy List Quarterly" reliable and thorough. We now present the publication to the Reverend Clergy and the Catholic Public for their inspection and approbation, hoping that the reward of careful and patient service may be reaped by us in their appreciation of our efforts.

The titular sees are generally conferred on archbishops and bishops who are appointed to Apostolic Delegations, Vicariates, or Prefectures, or to the office of Administrator, Coadjutor, or Auxiliary in a diocese.

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals are the supreme council or senate of the Church, the advisers of the Sovereign Pontiff, and at the death of a Pope elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Cardinal-Bishops, Cardinal-Priests, and Cardinal-Deacons; but these orders are distinct from those of the hierarchy; it often happens that many of the Cardinal Priests are archbishops or bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are generally priests. The Sacred College, when full, consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, whose dioceses are the six "Suburban Sees"; 50 Cardinal Priests, whose titles are the "Titular Churches" of which they are appointed superiors, with jurisdiction and a right to a throne, etc., therein; and 14 Cardinal Deacons, who are appointed to the churches called "deaconries." This number, however, is seldom complete.

CARDINAL McCLOSKEY.

JOHN CARDINAL McCLOSKEY.

JOHN MCCLOSKEY was born March 10, 1810, in Brooklyn. He studied at Mount St. Mary's, Emmettsburg, and subsequently attended the Gregorian University, or Roman College, at Rome, where he remained two years. After his ordination, and return to America, he was appointed President of Fordham College—pastor of St. Joseph's Church, New York.

In 1843 he was appointed Coadjutor to Archbishop Hughes, the first Archbishop of New York. In 1847 he was transferred to Albany, as first bishop of that city. On the death of that distinguished and indefatigable prelate, Archbishop Hughes, Bishop McCloskey was transferred to New York, becoming second Archbishop of that city.

In 1875 he was made a Cardinal of the Church, by His Holiness, Pope Pius the IXth, who entertained a special love for America's first Cardinal.

It would be impossible to enumerate all the good accomplished by the great and unobtrusive Cardinal. He accomplished what he did without ostentatious or intentional display. His heart and mind were in his work. His lasting monument will be St. Patrick's Cathedral in the city of New York. Full of years and good works, universally revered by persons of all nationalities and religions, fortified by the Sacraments of the Church, of which he was the most obedient and distinguished subject and prince in the New World, he passed to his eternal reward, Oct. 10, 1885.

Subscriptions will be thankfully received at the Commissariat, and forwarded to the Rt. Rev. Supr. of the Holy Sepulche; said subscriptions or offerings to be employed in preserving the principal sanctuaries of the Catholic Church in Palestine, under the charge of the Franciscan Friars.

By the Bull of Pope Pius VI. "Inter cætera Divinorum," benefactors are made partakers in the good works done in the aforesaid mission, as well as in the Masses—over 20,000 every year—offered for their welfare at the Holy Sepulchre, in Bethlehem, and in other holy places.

RT. REV. F. X. KRAUTBAUER, D.D.

SECOND BISHOP OF GREEN BAY, WIS.

Died December 17th, 1885.

RT. REV. F. X. KRAUTBAUER was born in the parish of Bruck, near Ratisbon, Bavaria, January 12th, 1824. He made his studies in Ratisbon, and at the University of Munich, returning to the Seminary at Ratisbon, and being ordained July 16th, 1850. He came at once to America, his first charge being SS. Peter and Paul's, Rochester, N. Y. In 1858 he became Vicar General of the Diocese, which post he retained for one year, relinguishing it for the purpose of accepting the chaplaincy of the Convent of Notre Dame in Milwaukee. He was appointed Bishop of Green Bay in February, 1875, and consecrated June 29th of the same year.

The late Bishop was a man of great public spirit, singularly pure in character and of natural fine sensibilities. His mental and moral endowments, of which he was so richly possessed, made him esteemed and revered even aside of from the sacred office to which the church appointed him.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Sodalities and Church Societies.—In most churches Altar Societies and Sodalities of the Blessed Virgin are established. In some larger congregations benevolent or educational societies are established.

The Association of the Holy Childhood of Jesus has been introduced in quite a number of parish-schools or Sunday-schools. The Diocesan Secretary of the Holy Childhood is Rev. James O'Reilly, to whom all the collections are to be sent.

The Association of the Propagation of Faith has been established. Rev. E. Bononcini is the General Secretary.

Indian Missions.—There are about 250 Catholic Indians still living on their lands at St. Mary's Mission, the others have removed to the Indian Territory.

Negroes.—Schools for the colored children have been established at Leavenworth and Topeka.

Immigration.—As large numbers of immigrants have poured into our State during the past two years and a larger number even is expected, the Bishop desires to give the address of several of the Rev. Pastors in whose districts there are some fine openings for Catholic immigrants: Revs. J. Pichler, Hanover; P. Maurer, Salina; J. F. Leary, Solomon City; E. Bononcini, Scammonville; Angelus Hafertepe, O.S.F. Emporia; Thomas M. Bartl, Seneca; T. M. Luber, St. Benedict's P. O.; M. C. Duggan, Winfield; W. Emmerich, Dubuque P. O.; S. Wozny, Pittsburgh; Fr. DIOCESE OF ST. AUGUSTINE, FLORIDA.

ESTABLISHED MARCH, 1870.

Comprises East, Middle, and South Florida.

Florida, east of the Appalachicola River, was erected by Pope Pius IX. into a Vicarate-Apostolic in the year 1857, and in 1870 into the Diocese of St. Augustine.

Bishop—Rt. Rev. JOHN MOORE, D.D., cons. May 13, 1877.

Late Bishop—Rt. Rev. AUGUSTIN VEROT. D.D., cons. April 25, 1858, Vicar-Apostolic of Florida; translated to the See of Savannah in July, 1861; appointed Bishop of St. Augustine March, 1870; d. June 10, 1876.

Vicar-General.—Very Rev. HY. CLAVREUL, residing at Mandagin.

CHURCHES AND CLERGY.

City of St. Augustine, Cathedral of St. Augustine, Rev. P. J. Lynch, rector. The congregation of St. Augustine is by far the oldest in the land, though it has had many vicissitudes in consequence of frequent changes of flag. The first colonists came from Spain in 1565, more than half a century before the Pilgrims landed on Plymouth. The Church of St. Augustine was fully organized at that early period, and it is the unique privilege of that church to have a full set of church records of baptisms, marriages, etc., from the year 1594, in a perfect state of preservation. These records are now in the city of Havana, where they were carried in 1763, at the first change of flag which made Florida pass under English rule. The population was originally altogether Catholic, and it has continued to have a largely preponderating number of Catholics to the present day.

Chapel of our Lady of Milk, formerly Nuestra Sra. de la Leche, half a mile north of St. Augustine. The site of this chapel has lately been discovered and a new building erected on the old foundations. The spot is hallowed from the fact that a missionary priest, the Franciscan Friar Father Blas Rodriguez de Montes, two hundred and eighty years ago (in 1597) was put to death there by the Indians, from whom he asked and obtained permission to say Mass, which they attended in silence, and at the end of which they massacred him. There was on that spot, in the time of the old Spaniards, an oratory dedicated to Our Blessed Lady. The chapel perished during the political struggles of Florida; it was restored some years ago by Bishop Verot, but was blown down in a gale of wind.

St. Ambrose's Parish, P. O. Racey Point, St. John's Co., Rev. S. Langlade, rector.

City of Jacksonville, Church of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. William J. Kenny, rector. Rev. J. J. Creed, assistant. The church, with the parochial residences, was destroyed by fire during the war. The new church was opened on the 16th of Nov., 1873.

Key West (the most southerly point of Florida and of the United States), Church of St. Mary, Star of the Sea, Rev. Felix Ghione, rector. The church has received large additions and embellishments, and is the largest and handsomest edifice of the kind in Key West.

Tallahassee, capital of Florida, Church of Mater Dolorosa, Rev. S. L. Hugon.

Lake City, Church of the Epiphany, attended from Tallahassee.

Fernandina, Amelia Island, Nassau Co., Rev. Anthony J. F. Kilcoyne, rector. FRANCIS BAUMER,

PRACTICAL WAX BLEACHER AND MANUFACTURER OF

Hand Casted Patent Finished Wax Candles,

Also the so-called Strictly Pure Moulded Beeswax Candles.

SYRACUSE, N. Y.

In presenting my Hand-made, Patent-finished candles to the Reverend Clergy and Public, I wish to say, that I am now also ready to supply the demand for so called "Pure Molded Beeswax Candles," as I have the necessary facilities required for such, and am able to turn out even a better candle, concerning quality, finish and especially the burning of the same, which exceeds that of other molded candles. It is an undisputable fact, that beeswax candles cannot be made pure in molds, and those claiming the exclusive invention and sole manufacture of such, are grossly imposing on the Clergy and religious communities, as the machines used for such, are common Paraffine candle machines, manufactured by Messrs. Homan & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, for a firm claiming to be the exclusive inventors. When ordering candles, please call for Baumer's Patent finished hand-casted candles, which is undeniably proclaimed the best candle made in this country, of the best quality, perfect finish and unsurpassed burning.

I therefore claim my Hand-made Candle superior to all others, and in consequence of these qualities I enjoy the largest sale of wax candles in the United States. However, if you wish a molded candle, such only being of a second quality, ask for Baumer's molded candle, which you can always buy five cents cheaper than other molded candles, guaranteed to be of better quality and burning.

My candles are sold by every dealer in the country.

BEESWAX

ALTAR CANDLE

— NOW PRODUCED IS —

R. ECKERMANN & WILLS

SUPERIOR

MOULDED * BEESWAX * CANDLE.

FIRST QUALITY.

Made of White (bleached) and Yellow (unbleached) Beeswax, in all sizes, 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, and 8 to the pound. They are neatly and securely put up in 6 lb. paper boxes, 24, 36, and 48 lb. cases, thereby avoiding breakage in transportation.

CAUTION.—The Candles offered by some dealers under the heading "Pure Beeswax Candles—Superior Moulded," at 35 cts. per lb., is not our product but the spurious imitation of a competitor of which he says in his recent circular: That it "ranks only as second best."

To avoid imposition and be sure you are getting only first quality Candles, see that our name appears on each package.

We wish it distinctly understood that in addition to our Moulded Candles we still continue to make a first-class hand-made Wax Candle for those who have a preference for this style. The difference in price of three cents per pound we are, however, obliged to make for the one and only reason, that to furnish hand-made candles a greater amount of labor is required.

On the next page we give a few of the many testimonials from the Reverend Clergy and Religious who have used our Molded Candles with the highest satisfaction. Faithfully and Sincerely Yours,

R. ECKERMANN & WILL,
SYRACUSE, N. Y.

Kind Words from our Rev'd Friends in this City and Vicinity.

Messrs. ECKERMANN & WILL,

Gentlemen: — We are very much pleased with the Moulded Wax Candles of your manufacture. They give good satisfaction,

Yours sincerely,

REV. JAS. J. MORIARTY, L. L. D.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 1885. Pastor of St. John's Church.

I have known the firm of Eckermann & Will for some years. For honest goods and fair dealings I most heartily commend them to the public and especially to the Right Rev. and Reverend Clergy. REV. JAS. A. O'HARA, D. D.

St. Mary's Church.

I have used the Moulded Wax Candles manufactured by Eckermann & Will and can state that these Candles are of good quality, and very saving, and burning with a bright tranquil light. I therefore warmly recommend this firm to the Reverend Clergy and to dealers in church goods. REV. JOSEPH PICKL.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 1885. Pastor St. Joseph's German Church.

I have been purchasing Moulded Wax Candles for St. Joseph's Church from R. Eckermann & Will, of this city, and I shall continue to do so as they have given me entire satisfaction. REV. C. THIBAULT, Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 1885. Pastor St. Joseph's French Catholic Church.

We have been purchasing Candles from R. Eckermann & Will, and have always found them to give entire satisfaction. SISTERS OF CHARITY, House of Providence.

Accept thanks for your courteous ways of doing business. I hope we will long deal together. REV. M. CLUNE, East Syracuse, N. Y. Pastor St. Matthew's Church.

I have been using your Candles for some years. I take pleasure in recommending them.

Waterloo, N. Y., Nov. 1885. Rev. L. A. LAMBERT.

Messrs. ECKERMANN & WILL,

Gentlemen:—It gives me pleasure to state, that judging from the Candles you sent me, you have attained a high degree of perfection in the manufacture of Altar Candles. I find the wax is clear and unadulterated. The Candles are symmetrical and burn with bright steady flame, while your ornamental Candles cannot be excelled for beauty. Congratulating you upon the success which has crowned your labors, to furnish our Altars with good pure Candles, I remain,

Yours Sincerely,

RT. REV. E. P. WADHAMS, D. D.,

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Oct. 1885. St. Mary's Cathedral.

I have used Wax Candles from different manufacturers, but your Moulded Wax Candles are the best, in all respects, that ever burned on the Altar of any Church I have been Pastor of.

— AS APPLIED TO —

Hess Stove Works,

CHICAGO.

The advantage of our system of heating consists in the perfect quality of the air, and the wonderful economy of fuel. The air to be breathed passes through tubes behind and away from the fire, and does not come in contact with over-heated cast iron. Our gas-burning fire-pot burns the gas and smoke. All the heat generated from the combustion of the fuel, the gas and the smoke, is retained in the house, and does not go up the chimney. These goods save their cost in two seasons, besides giving a summer atmosphere through the house. Adapted to all fuels.

We make nine sizes of Portable Furnaces with vertical flues as shown in above cut, and five sizes of larger ones with diagonal flues as shown in large cut on opposite page.

We also make Heating Stoves for dwellings and small rooms; and large school-rooms and churches.— 13 sizes—on same principle. The effect of heating the vertical air tubes is to draw the cold air from the floor from all parts of the room, and heating it to deliver it out of the top of the heater, thus heating by circulation, making the entire atmosphere of the room uniform throughout. These goods are in use by:

Catholic Belief:

or, A Short and Simple Exposition of Catholic Doctrine.

By the Very Rev. Joseph Faà di Bruno, D.D. Revised and adapted to the United States by Rev. Louis A. Lambert, author of "Notes on Ingersoll," etc.

With the Imprimatur of Their Eminences the Cardinal, Archbishop of New York, and the Cardinal, Archbishop of Westminster, and an Introduction by the Right Rev. S. V. Ryan, Bishop of Buffalo.

16mo, flexible cloth, ... 40 cents.

10 copies, $2.65; 50 copies, $12.00; 100 copies, $20.00.

This is an admirable book of instruction on Christian Doctrine for both Catholics and Protestants.

Short, clear, simple and concise it meets the needs of a numerous class of non-Catholics, who yearning after Truth, unsettled in their convictions, sincere in their inquiries, and curious to know just what Catholics do believe, have neither leisure nor inclination to pore over large volumes or study elaborate dogmatical treatises.

The author evinces rare ability and tact in setting forth Catholic principles in a few words, with winning simplicity and yet scholastic accuracy. He treats of all the leading dogmas of the Church, yet as his aim is to remove "from minds otherwise well disposed, misconceptions of our holy religion, and still deep-rooted prejudices against Catholic faith," he naturally addresses himself more particularly to, and dwells more lengthily on, those doctrines which Protestantism has rejected. Another feature of the work is its entire freedom from anything which might give offence to any one, without, however, compromising or disguising the truth. He shows throughout a delicate consideration for those in error, and a just appreciation of the difficulties, intellectual, moral, and social, which converts to the Faith must encounter and overcome.

There is another feature of the book which is rarely found in controversial works: Though entirely master of the situation as regards the principles, the arguments, and facts at issue, the author does not rely wholly on these. The grace of God is essential to a true conversion, and hence this little book treats of grace and the means of obtaining it. Prayer is the primary means of grace, and hence a spirit of prayer pervades the whole work, and the second part is specially devoted to this subject.

The book is just the one to put in the hands of a Protestant friend, confident that Catholic faith will more readily reach the soul and bring conviction to the understanding, when Catholic charity has won the heart and favorably predisposed the will.

Over 80,000 copies of the book have been sold in England, and it has perhaps more than any other work been the means of bringing very many into the Church.

CIRCULAR.

To the Most Reverend, Right Reverend, and Reverend Clergy, and to Superiors of Religious Communities:—

WE beg leave to call your attention to the late important improvement in the baking of Altar Bread. This invention has met with the approval of all that have used it thus far, as the numerous testimonials we have received speak of it in the highest terms, and admit that its use is a great saving of time, labor and expense.

The material is of the best and so constructed that it will last for years without any repairing. It comprises two composition (bell metal) plates, size 8 x 11 inches, secured to an iron case or stove, inside of which is a lamp one-half the length, made to work movable by means of a lever, in order to equalize the heat of the plate. When they are sufficiently heated, the batter is poured on the center of the stationary plate, and the movable one is immediately drawn over by means of the lever on the side of the case and fastened down with the double lever in front, to remain a moment or two before unfastening. The movable plate can be regulated so as to form any thickness by raising or lowering the boxes on which the trunnions of the plate work. We make two sizes, large No. 3, being capable of making fifty small breads, and the other, No. 5, thirty breads can be cut from each baking.

We would call your especial attention to our new pattern, No. 5, which is meeting with great success and large sales.

When ordering please state whether for gas or spirit lamp.

Our method of dealing with customers has been to send on thirty or forty days' trial, terms which we still adhere to, as we are desirous that none may be in use without giving perfect satisfaction.

For further information in relation to the ALTAR BREAD BAKING OVEN, send for Illustrated Catalogue which shows the various stages of working, together with testimonials of those now having it in use.

Yours very Respectfully,

HOFFMANN BROS.

Below we give the names and addresses of the Rev. Clergy and Religious Institutions having our ALTAR BREAD OVEN in use, who have favored us with testimonials of its worth, and which can be found in full in our illustrated Catalogue:

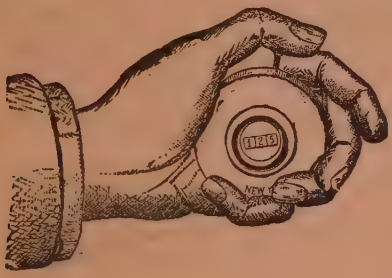
NEW

Confessional * Register.

Price, Handsomly Nickel Plated, only $2.25.



Is a very useful article, especially for large churches, missions, and for occasions when a great many confessions are to be heard. This is the most practical way of correctly counting the number of confessions.

The cut represents the Register as held in the hand to be used. At the back of the instrument is fixed a ring through which a finger is passed to bring the machine in the right position that the pusher may be operated by the thumb. The machine is about two inches in diameter, registers as high as a 1000, and when it has reached that number, it commences over again. This Register can be set back to zero, or to any number desired, in a moment, by operating the pusher till the units dial shows 0; then set the tens and hundredths disks to 0 by turning the set-back knobs at the back of the machine in the direction opposite to which the dials turn when counting.

BOOKS FOR OUR TIMES AND COUNTRY.

A Popular Defence of Christian Doctrines.

Vol. I., Modern Scientific Views and Christian Doctrines Compared

By Rev. John Gmeiner, Professor in the Theological Seminary of St. Francis, near Milwaukee, Wis.

MOST REV. JAMES GIBBONS, Archbishop of Baltimore, May 4, 1885:
"I have read it with delight and edification. It is clear, learned, convincing. and to the point."
THE DUBLIN REVIEW, April, 1885:
"This unpretentious little volume . . . is a treasury of scientific information and philosophical criticism. . . . In small compass we have here a lucid refutation of the more popular and widespread errors of the day."
MOST REV. WILLIAM HENRY ELDER, Archbishop of Cincinnati:
"Such books are particularly useful in our present day. And I hope the success of this one will be such as to encourage you in future labors in the same field."
THE NEW YORK FREEMAN'S JOURNAL:
"Father Gmeiner has produced, with great carefulness, with scholarly precision, and with terseness and clearness of expression, an antidote, much needed to that most insidious poison, modern scientific infidelity. , . . It is of immense value to counteract the effects of scrappy reading and lack of thinking which sometimes make scoffers and skeptics of ill-instructed Catholics."

Vol. II., The Spirits of Darkness and Their Manifestations on Earth; or, Ancient and Modern Spiritualism.

Holy Ghost College,

BLUFF ST., PITTSBURGH, PA.

This Institute, also known as the Pittsburgh Catholic College, and incorporated with the fullest powers to confer academic degrees, is conducted by the Fathers of the Holy Ghost. It offers every facility for commercial and classical studies and modern languages. The building is situated on the most conspicuous part of an eminence, from which it commands a magnificent view of the two cities of Pittsburg and Allegheny; while stretches of river to the south and west complete a prospect at once grand, beautiful and highly interesting for its many historical associations.

To the ordinary College curriculum is added a special class intended for young men who desire to go through a full, practical business course, at the end of which they can get their diploma. The College comprises four categories: 1st. Those who attend class, from 9 A. M. to 2:30 P. M. only; terms, $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00 per month, according to grade. 2d. Those who assist at class, dine and study in the College, for whom there is an extra charge of $6.00 per month. 3d. Those who board in the College from Monday morning till Friday evening: board and tuition $16 per month. 4th. Full boarders; pension, $20 per month. The establishment also includes Scolastic and Lay Brother. The Scholastics are a special category of students who prosecute the studies preparatory to Holy Orders, and who, believing themselves called by God to the righteous state, are here educated by priests of the order which they purpose one day to gain. Young men desiring to enter this department will find admission on furnishing satisfactory testimonials. After finishing their mental and moral training they will receive Holy Orders and be admitted as professed members in the Society, to carry thenceforward to the confines of the earth the inestimable blessings of Christian faith and Catholic education. The Lay Brothers, too, are members of the same religious body as the teaching staff, whom they aid in all material work connected with the College. Young men desirous of embracing the religious state, and joining the Order in the capacity of Lay Brothers, will find here the wished-for opportunity. To be admitted in the Novitiate, they must present reliable testimonials showing their earnest desire to devote themselves to the service of God in the Society.

Your "Key of Heaven" has been received. It is a nice little prayer-book in regard to its form, print, paper and good collection of prayers and devotions. Please accept my thanks and hearty congratulations. † KILIAN C. FLASCH,
Bishop of La Crosse, Wis.

The "Key of Heaven, or Rays of Light, on Life's Pilgrimage," has so many good features that it is difficult to single out the better. I heartily commend it. It will be the popular prayer-book for Americans. Please send me 25 copies.
REV. FRANK A. O'BRIEN, St. Augustine's Rectory, Kalamazoo, Mich.

The collection of prayers is excellent, the binding the best I ever saw. Nothing can beat the print and quality of the paper. Much credit is due to you for getting up this neat prayer-book. REV. JOHN DEMPSY,
St. John's Church, La Fayette, Ind.

I like your book, for it is practical and covers the necessary ground. I will introduce it as far as I can. REV. M. O'REILLY,
St. Paul's Church, Valparaiso, Ind.

The taste displayed in the choice, as well as in the arrangement of devotions, is to be commended. I hope that the church-going faithful will show its appreciation in accordance with the merits of the book. REV. JOHN H. GUENDLING,
St. Joseph's Orphanage, La Fayette, Ind.
